To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of Mark Roberts and his business, Wine Service Consulting, Inc. Mark has been a wine professional for over thirty-five years, is a certified wine specialist, and has been a personal friend for almost twenty years.

I know Mark to be organized, responsible, and trustworthy. His knowledge of wine is unparalleled; at the same time, his even-tempered personality and experience in teaching wine service give him the ability to explain his findings in such a way that even the most inexperienced layman can appreciate and understand the results.

Although I have not needed his services in a professional capacity, I would not hesitate to use him as a consulting or testifying expert in investigating damage claims based on wine breakage, spoilage, or other damage, as well as to conduct a factual assessment of the value of rare and fine wines for legal proceedings such as divorce or probate matters.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me at the number above or email me at eks@federal-lawyer.com.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Stepp
